CLEAA

Continuing Legal Education Association of Australasia for CPD Professionals

Continuing Legal Education Association of Australasia (CLEAA) is the Australasian body for networking, advocacy and advancing the professionalism of CPD professionals. Membership is open to anyone involved or interested in continuing legal education and professional development of the legal profession.

Why should I become a CLEAA Member?

By being a CLEAA Member you will have unrivalled access to a supportive peer group network who are passionate about educating and developing lawyers.

Your CLEAA Membership includes:

- Free registration to the 2020 CLEAA Conference. This provides a rare opportunity for legal education professionals to invest in their own professional development.
- The CLEAA electronic newsletter, CLEAA Talk, containing news articles relating to legal education, regulatory updates and more.
- State-based events during the year, giving an opportunity to meet with other members and often hear a guest speaker. (Subject to local support)
- Access to past conference papers and research materials on CLEAA's website.
- Information about events and employment opportunities relevant to CLEAA members.
- Access to details of other members, who have given permission, on the 'Members Only' section of the website.

What does CLEAA offer me?

CLEAA provides a unique forum for the exchange of ideas, insights, information and problem-sharing affecting professional legal education in general and continuing legal education in particular.

As an independent association, CLEAA also monitors regulatory and industry changes, and lobbies on behalf of the legal education community. Membership of CLEAA is open to any person involved in or interested in the provision of continuing legal education.
