

Day One Thursday, 15 October 2020

Disruption

“For good ideas and true innovation, you need human interaction, conflict, argument and debate” (Margaret Heffernan)

1:00 PM	Welcome and introductions
1:15 PM – 2:00 PM	Acknowledgement of Country Jennifer Mar Young, Director, Client Relationships, Arilla Indigenous Consulting Jennifer Mar Young of Arilla Indigenous Consulting will open our conference and build understanding of First Nations People with an interactive experience. Bring your questions to make the most of this session. Jennifer’s knowledge is extensive and there is no question that she hasn’t heard before. If you have been wondering what to say / not say or how to position something this is a great chance to ask an expert.
2.00pm – 2.15pm	Game Rules for a Digital Conference Natalie Wieland, Founder, Vidversity and Anna Hinder, Director, Searl Street Consulting
2.15pm – 3.00pm	Diversity &amp; Inclusion Conflict Maureen Frank, Chief Disruption Officer, Emberin
3.00 –	Roundtable Discussion: Constructive Stories in a Challenging Year

3:30 PM	2020 has been a year of disorientation and professional development. Our panelists will kick off a session designed to give us an opportunity to share what we have learned and plan to implement going forward.
3:30 – 3:45	Break
3:45 PM – 4:45 PM	What your Lawyers Need to Know about Advocacy in a Virtual Environment Hon. Justice Forbes, Supreme Court of Victoria  T D Bourke, Magistrate, Lead Magistrate CMS Project and Online Magistrates' Court, Magistrates Court of Victoria  Sarah Codde, Digital Litigation Business Transformation Manager, Supreme Court of Victoria The courts and alternative dispute resolution options have shifted online. This is not entirely new for some lawyers and decisions makers, but now we all need to develop skills for the virtual environment. In this session, we will hear from the people who work in these spaces and get an overview of best practices and processes for being effective advocates.
4:45 – 4:50	Close the formalities for the day
4:45 PM 5:30 PM	Social Session

Day Two Friday, 16 October 2020

Innovation

“Never let a good crisis go to waste” (Winston Churchill)

9:30 AM – 9:55 AM	AGM – open to all financial members
10:00 AM – 10:15 AM	Welcome to Day 2  Ann-Maree David, Executive Director, The College of Law Queensland  Back by popular demand, Ann-Maree David will share her top tech tips for 2020 and beyond.
10:15 AM-11:15 AM	Delivering CPD in a Pandemic – Some Global Insights  Karen Lee, Chief Equity and Professional Development Officer, Oregon State Bar Nathaniel T. Trelease, President, WebCredenza, Inc Kristin Huotari, Publications Director, Colorado Bar Association CLE , President-Elect, Association for Continuing Legal Education (ACLEA)  With the world turned upside down from the pandemic, how quickly individuals and organizations pivot will be a key indicator of their future existence. CPD may be positioned to not only survive but thrive in prolonged conditions that will have long-term effects on the legal profession. Using real time responses from viewers, share in a discussion of what happened to CPD when everything fell apart and where we might be headed as the pieces are reassembled into the “new normal.”
11:15 AM – 11:20 AM	Stretch break/grab a coffee
11:20 AM – 12:15 PM	Innovation in Learning Tech  Sharmaine Gewohn, Director, UNSW Edge Daniel Fish, Director of Education, GO1 Rodney King, Group Managing Director, Liberate Learning  Innovation in learning tech was already gathering pace before the pandemic. This session will look at how technology is delivering a whole new level of learner experience and learning effectiveness. The focus will be on practical tips and lessons learnt to ensure your learning is the highest quality and

	impact - whatever the tech. Anna Hinder will run a panel session styled after the ABC's The Drum with panel guests to give you plenty of ideas to apply to your own learning programs and look at your own learning tech skills.
12:15 PM – 1:00 PM	Explore the 3R's in CHIT CHAT Tables Join a table with a topic of interest, or just a group that you would like to chit-chat with in this time dedicated to catching up and connecting with others attending. Many CLEAA members will have fond memories of the conference dinners and this is a change to bring a social element to the conference. We have three themes - resilience, resistance and remote working. Or start your own discussion - the important part is the Chit-Chat!
1:00 – 1:15	Closing Remarks